Jesus says, “this generation will not pass away until all has taken place. What do you think this means and why? What other Scripture can you use to back up your interpretation? Does Jesus’s promise that His words will not pass away give you confidence in Him? Why or why not? How does confidence in God’s Word impact our assurance of salvation and eternity?

Jesus gives three commands here at the end of this section – watch yourselves, stay awake and pray. What does He mean by each one? How are you following each of these commands? How can you better follow them as a disciple of Jesus?

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

1. CONNECT TO THE TEXT

Waiting for a loved one to come home. Waiting for the big day to arrive. Waiting for Christmas morning. When is a time you remember waiting for someone or something important to you? How did waiting impact your heart and mind during that time? Why do you think God is making us wait for Jesus's return?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Read Luke 21:20-38. Jesus prophesies about two different events in this section – the fall of Jerusalem and the second coming of Christ. How did His prediction about the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D. help the early church hope in Him? How does Jesus's promise to return one day help us to hope in Him today? Are you currently waiting for Jesus with hope? If so, how? What does it look like for you to raise your head in the hope of Jesus's return?
