

WHEN HOPE FILLS GOD'S LEADERS

January 21, 2018

1 Thessalonians 2:1-12

I. They _____ rightly – Humility. – v. 2-4

As you aspire to lead others to Christ, how well are you living out the characteristics of Paul's leadership? Which one are you strongest in? Which one are you weakest in?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

In whatever role God has placed us, we should all strive to be Godly leaders and to follow Godly leaders. What can you do this week to foster Godly leadership in our church or in your life? (This could be exhibiting more Godly leadership or supporting Godly leadership.)

II. They _____ selflessly – Charity. – v. 3-8

4. COMMIT THIS WEEK

Being a Godly leader is often difficult because it goes against both our culture and our sinful nature. Write down the name of a Godly leader in your life and how you will be intentional to encourage them this week.

III. They _____ diligently – Responsibility. – v. 9-12

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

The hope of Jesus changes every part of us, including how we love and lead others.

1. REVIEW THE SERMON

Who are some top leaders in our country today? How would you describe them? What characteristics do they have in common?

Read 1 Thessalonians 2:1-12. How does Paul describe his leadership among the Thessalonians? Based on this passage, what words would you use to describe Paul's character as a leader? Why is it important for leaders in the church to have these characteristics and what happens if they don't?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Do you see the leadership characteristics of Paul in the leaders and people of our church? Can you share a story or example of how you have seen one of these characteristics in our church?

GODLY _____ LEAD GODLY _____.
