In times of confusion, it is often hard to think clearly and keep our heads. Emotion and fear can overcome us and lead us to act and talk in ways that aren't aligned with Jesus. How are you feeling in our society's current state of confusion and how are you responding to it? Is your response in line with God's character and Word? Is your response adding to the chaos or bringing in the peace and hope of Christ?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Where do you need Jesus to give you freedom from ignorance in your life right now? Maybe a debilitating thought or false belief? Maybe an unhealthy or sinful practice? Maybe a crippling fear or lack of clarity? Find and write down a verse that helps bring truth to your ignorance in this area (get help from your Small Group if you struggle to find a verse). Then commit this week to read, meditate and pray that verse over your mind and heart.

III. The Word of the Lord can set me free from ignorant _____.
– v. 21-41

_____ go hand in hand.

*Freedom from ignorant confusion comes _____
_____, but the power of the Word and the Spirit.*

I FIND _____ FROM IGNORANCE
IN THE _____ OF THE LORD.

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

Truth and time go hand in hand. Trust in the Lord, His Word and His Spirit.

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Read Acts 19. How did the Word of the Lord and the Holy Spirit work in the lives of the group of disciples, Jews, Ephesian citizens, and Ephesian believers? What ignorance was corrected in each of their lives?

---

---

---

---

What was Demetrius' purpose and agenda? How did God thwart his plan? What posture and role did Paul and other Christians take in this threat?

---

---

---

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

When you look back over your past life with Jesus what ignorant beliefs or practices has He helped you overcome? It could be pre or post salvation. What means of spiritual discipleship did He use to set you free from these things? Do you have any sinful beliefs or practices that are still plaguing you today? If so, what Scriptures can you find to help overcome them?
