

Which type of attack do you most struggle with responding to correctly and why? It could be one of the four in this passage or a different type. How can the fear of God help you with these kinds of attacks?

---

---

---

---

The surrounding enemies became afraid when they saw God's awesome power at work through His people. When have you seen God's power impact you or others in a similar way? How can you use the evidence of God's power in your life to help other's come to fear and know Him?
