

turn away from their sin. Have you experienced this same urgency in your own repentance and if so what does that look like in your life?

The people in this passage don't just repent of some abstract sin, they get specific. Do you regularly repent of specific sin in your life or do your prayers more often reference your sin only in the abstract? Why? Sometimes it is difficult to call out our specific sin for repentance. What steps can you take to be more specific about your sin?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Worship requires repentance and repentance leads us to worship. Where is your worship of God currently being hindered by a lack of repentance? What specific sins do you need to repent of before God today?

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Read Nehemiah 9:38-10:29. What led to repentance for the people and what language in this passage describes their repentance? What is a covenant and how does it relate to the people's heart for repentance?

Read Nehemiah 10:30-39. What specific sins do the people repent of? Why was their citation of specific sins essential to their repentance? What was their primary goal of the covenant renewal and repentance?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

In your own understanding explain the difference between confession of sin and repentance of sin? How does this distinction impact the way you approach your sin before God? The covenant language of the people shows their urgency and resolve to
