Our culture fully embraces sexual immorality as normative and hails sex as god. How has sexual immorality (your own or from others) impacted your life (body, mind, spirit, heart, relationships, etc.? How has or can God's Word change your approach to sexuality and bring healing and freedom in this area?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Do you have any sexual immorality strongholds? Could be in how you look at others or view your own body. Could be in how you interact with media or inappropriate relationships. Could be in how you fantasize about or engage with others. If so what steps are you taking or can you take to destroy this stronghold in your life?

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Review the scriptures from the first point of the sermon notes. What is the origin of sex and how does this impact how we should approach it? In what ways does sex function as a gift from God? How does our culture view sex and how does this compare to God's view?
