

to the Gospel? What does the level of obedience in your walk testify about your worship of Jesus? Do you need to take a step in the area of obedience? If so, what?

How does the darkness, our sin, blind us from loving others? Why do John and Jesus (John 13:35) equate loving others so closely to worshipping and following God? How well do you love others around you and what does this reveal about your worship of God? Do you need to take a step in the area of loving others? If so, who?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Walking with God means continually taking new faith steps.
What is your next faith step to keep growing in your walk with God?

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Read Romans 6:4 and 1 John 1:5-10, 2:3-6, 9-11. What is “walking in newness of life”? What “tests” or measurements does John give to determine if we are true worshippers of God and walking in fellowship with Him? Are you a true worshipper of God and how do you know?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Why is it often difficult for us to confess our sins? What does your practice of confession look like? (ex. frequency, audience, method, depth, etc.) Of the three options John gave in 1 John 1:5-10, which one describes the current state of your heart? Do you need to take a step in the area of confession? If so, how?

What are some examples you have experienced or seen where people claim to know or love God, but fail to obey Him and His Word? How is this mindset or approach a barrier
