

Persecution is an unpleasant reality of the Christian life according to both Paul and Jesus. Discuss Pastor Micah's statement that "Jesus's path through persecution is not power or appeasement, but perseverance." How does your life line up with this statement? How do you need to adjust your life to this reality? Does the way you generally respond to suffering point people to Jesus or something else?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Spiritual Legacy starts with leadership.

At what level of spiritual leadership are you currently leading?

Level 1 – Leading Self Level 2 – Leading Others Level 3 – Leading Leaders

How are you spiritually leading at home? At church? In other places?

What steps can you take to increase your spiritual leadership and legacy?

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Read 2 Timothy 3:10-15. What is Paul's purpose in "bragging" on himself in the first few verses? What does this have to do with Timothy and his future ministry? What gives Paul the confidence to exhort Timothy to continue in what he has learned?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Paul lays out a spiritual progression Timothy followed him in. Think (Teaching) -> Do (Conduct) -> Focus (Aim) -> Become (Faith). Which step of this progression do you function in most of the time and why? Who in your life are you following to help you grow spiritually and what are you doing to follow them? Who is following you?

Does my _____ to suffering point others to Jesus?

III. Pass the torch through faithful _____. - v. 14-15

Legacy starts with _____.

How can I _____ through spiritual legacy?
