How does your heart impact how you hear and respond to God's Word? What hindrances or roadblocks in your heart keep you from doing God's Word on a regular basis? SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Read Psalm 11 & Luke 6:46-49. What heart attitude is being addressed in both passages? How does this relate to what foundations we build our lives on? What verbal evidence is there in each passage that points to the heart more than actions?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

David's counselors in Psalm 11 are distressed because they have trusted in false foundations for their life and faith. What are some false foundations you have found yourself building your life on in the present or past? How has building on these false foundations affected your life? Why do you seek refuge in other foundations instead of the Lord? How can you apply the second half of Psalm 11 to your heart to help you build on the true foundation of the Lord?

_____ is my rock – my firm foundation.
