

confronted with in the recent past? Why do some people believe these other views?
How does God's Word or the Gospel refute these other views?

What does Paul say is and is not the purpose of our freedom in verses 13-15? How does this view of freedom contrast with our culture's modern understanding of freedom? Which view of freedom, the culture's or the Bible's, is more appealing to you and why? Which view do you see more evidence of in your life (thoughts, words, actions, decisions, etc...)? Is there anything that needs to change in how you view and live out your freedom in Christ?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Pastor Micah said, "Christian freedom means to be freed from some things and to other things." What things are you living freed from, and what things are you living freed to?

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE WORD

Read Galatians 5:1-15. Paul points to three major areas of freedom we have through faith in Christ: Hope, Truth and Love. How does Christ use each of these to give us freedom? How do we live out our freedom in each one of these areas?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

How does our “hope of righteousness” set us free from religious works and self-righteousness? What things does a lack of hope in Christ lead people to be enslaved to? How has the hope you have in Christ tangibly freed you from things of this world?

What does Paul mean by “obeying the truth” and how does that help us run the Christian life well? What caused the Galatians to stop running well? What are some “other views” or false thinking about God, the Bible, or the Gospel you have been

III. The _____ of Christ frees me from selfish love. – v. 13-15
