

and other spiritual authorities? On a scale of 1-10, how would you rate your humility before God? (That sounds like an oxymoron but it's not if it's honest self-reflection.)

What steps can you take to become more teachable and submissive before God?

Even though His parents missed it at first, Jesus had a singular heartfelt devotion to God. What examples in you display heartfelt devotion toward God above all else? On a scale of 1-10, how would you rate your devotion to God versus other things? What hinders you from being more desperate for and devoted to God?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Discipleship doesn't just happen. It is a divine human partnership between believers and the Holy Spirit that requires both joy and discipline. How can you better cultivate both joy and discipline in your walk with Christ?

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE WORD

Read Luke 2:39-52. This is the only story we have in the whole Bible about Jesus's childhood. Why do you think Luke chose to include this story? How does this passage help you better know and understand Jesus? How does this story encourage or challenge you in your own discipleship?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Even as a young boy Jesus showed a deep desire and hunger for God and His Word. What examples in your life display a hunger for God? On a scale of 1-10, how would you rate your hunger for God compared to other things in your life? How can you better pursue and prioritize God in your life and discipleship? (Think practical steps.)

Even though He was God, Jesus displayed great humility before the Father and His parents. What examples in your life display humility or a lack of humility before God
