

Jesus does some remarkable healings in this passage as well. We learn several things about how Jesus deals with sickness in this passage. What do we learn from the different approaches and outcomes? How can this help us better understand illness in our lives and how to deal with it?

Jesus refuses their calls to stay because He MUST preach the good news to others. What other scriptural evidence beyond this passage proves that preaching the Gospel was Jesus's primary mission? How does this truth impact the way the modern church should approach ministry? How does believing Jesus has the power to deliver hearts make us bolder witnesses?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Where in your life do you need Jesus to speak with authority? Evil, sin, illness, boldness to witness, etc...? Pray and ask Him to speak in power over that area.
