

before? How did it impact your life and faith in life after the experience? It can be tempting to keep chasing mountain top experiences. Why is this not healthy spiritually? How can you tell if you are really pursuing Christ or just another experience?

When it was all said and done, Jesus was found alone. What is the theological significance of this statement? Pastor Micah said, "True experience leads to obedience". Why is this statement true and how does it help you process different spiritual experiences you have had? How are you listening to Jesus more or better since your last mountain top experience with Him?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Real change only comes when we behold the glory of Jesus and are transformed by it. What can you do to help yourself more deeply behold the glory of Jesus this week?

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE WORD

Read Luke 9:28-36. The disciples almost missed out on one of their biggest moments with Jesus because they were sleeping. When have you almost missed out on a big moment or event in your life because you were distracted (sleeping, sick, unaware, forgot, etc...)? How would your life have been different if you missed it?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Jesus's whole reason for bringing the three with Him was so they could see Him in His glory, but they almost missed it because they were sleeping on Jesus. Over your faith journey, what has most helped you see Jesus more clearly? What distractions are currently hindering you from seeing Jesus more clearly? Is anything in your life causing you to sleep on Jesus right now?

Peter wanted to stay on the mountain top as long as he could. I think we all would, but Jesus had other plans. When have you had a "mountain top" experience with God Don't chase an _____ . Embrace Jesus.

III. Jesus reveals His glory so I can _____ Him faithfully. – v. 34-36
