

How does Jesus express the urgency of the mission to the 72? Does this same urgency still apply to the mission and disciples today? Why or why not? What does it look like to be urgent for the Gospel mission today? Are you living with urgency for the mission? How do you know?

Jesus makes it clear that some will receive the Gospel and some won't, but that doesn't change our mission. Based on Jesus's instructions towards those who receive the disciples, what can we learn about how we should faithfully carry out the mission? Read 2 Corinthians 2:14-17. How does this verse impact your desire to share the Gospel? Are you ever tempted to "peddle" God's Word? If so, how?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Being sent out with the Gospel requires simplicity, urgency and clarity. Which one do you need to grow in most in regards to your witness and how can you do that?

SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE WORD

Read Luke 10:1-16. What do you do for a living or what is your primary role in day-to-day life? What is your favorite part of your job or daily responsibilities? What part do you hate the most? If you could go out and do anything else, what would it be?

---

---

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Jesus gives the 72 a new job, a new mission. Why is this story significant when it is almost the exact same as the previous story about the 12 being sent out (Lk. 9:1-6)? Why did Luke include it? Why are many disciples of Jesus reluctant or resistant to being sent out on mission with the Gospel? How do Jesus's instructions to the 72 help us overcome that reluctance/resistance? How do you tend to overcomplicate the mission?

III. I am sent to _____ and _____. - v. 8-16
