

Jesus contrasts worrying with faith, but we rarely think of it that way. Why? Jesus tells us not to seek or be worried about earthly things, but rather to seek the Kingdom. What is His primary reason for this command? When it comes to your practical needs and desires in this life, how do you most often think about God fitting into the picture? How does this impact how much you worry in your day to day?

Jesus warns us that where our treasure is, is where our heart will be. How have you seen or experienced this in your life? He also gives us three ways to seek the Kingdom rather than this world. What are they and how do you personally need step into them more in order to seek God's Kingdom over the things of this world?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

What do you treasure in this life? Does what you treasure bring worry or worship to your heart and life? What needs to change?

Nothing to Worry About – Luke 12:22-34

1. CONNECT TO THE TEXT

Sometimes we don't think we worry a lot because we call it other things. Planning, concern, preparedness, anxiousness, overthinking, etc... But when Jesus talks about worry He is talking about anything that consumes our focus, attention, or priorities. By that definition what are you prone to worry about and why?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Read Luke 12:22-34. Jesus commands His disciples to stop worrying. When was the last time someone told you to just stop worrying and it actually helped you stop worrying? Thankfully, Jesus gives us three reasons to help us stop worrying. What are they? How do all three show how much God values you? How does knowing how much God values us help insulate us from worry?

Trust God to provide because your _____ loves you too much not to.

III. Put your money where your _____ is. – v. 33-34
