

Jesus laments over Jerusalem and Israel missing what truly brings peace. What were they looking to for peace instead of Jesus? How do we often look to similar things today for peace in our lives? Where do you most often look for peace and comfort when you are tired, stressed, or struggling?

Jesus comes in hot to deal with their sin in the presence of God. Why is He so upset about this particular sin? God confronts our sin in lots of different ways – His Word, teachings, fellow believers, the Holy Spirit, consequences. How do you most often respond when Jesus confronts your sin? With prayer or pride? What keeps you from listening and repenting? What can you do to change this?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

How has Jesus showed up in your life most recently? How did you respond? Do you need to revisit or change that response?

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

1. CONNECT TO THE TEXT

What was your favorite board/card game as a kid and why? Most games in some form or another are a battle to see who can come out on top - who can be King. Why do we long to be King of our lives and how does this impact our relationship with God?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Read Luke 19:28-48. As the group approaches Jerusalem, the disciples break out in worship and proclaim Jesus as King. In the past Jesus told them not to do this. Why does He allow it now? How does the inevitable praise of the rocks make a definitive statement about who Jesus is? What do you praise most in your life? What does your praise reveal about what you believe about King Jesus?

Where do I look for _____?

III. When King Jesus _____ sin – Do I listen or lash out?
– v. 45-48

How quickly do I _____?
